GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

FOR CONGRESS,

HON. SION H. ROGERS, OF WAKE.

ELECTORAL TICKET.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

HON. JAMES W. OSBORNE, OF MECKLENBURG.
JOSEPH J. DAVIS, OF FRANKLIN.

DISTRICTS.

1st—THOMAS J. JARVIS, OF TYRRELL.
2nd—JNO. HUGHES, OF CRAVEN.
3rd—JAS. C. DOBBIN, OF CUMBERLAND.
4th—WHARTON J. GREEN, OF WARREN.
5th—M. S. ROBINS, OF RANDOLPH.
6th—W. M. ROBBINS, OF ROWAN.
7th—L. M. McAFEE, OF CLEAVELAND.

OUR NOMINEES.

The nomination of the Hon. Sion H. Rogers for Congress, in this District, will be universally acceptable. Mr. Rogers' personal popularity is almost unbounded, he is a gentleman of great energy and a high order of ability, and will make such a canvass of this District as has seldom been seen. We dare Dewesse to meet him on the stump, and we promise him the full excoriation which he deserves. Mr. Rogers' acceptance will appear in our next.

Col. Wharton J. Green, our candidate for Elector, is a gentleman of fine attainments and great worth, hailing from the noble and true old county of Warren. He will do his whole duty.

OUR NOMINEES FOR CONGRESS.

Democratic and Conservative nominations for Congress have now been made in all the Districts of the State, except the Second, in which District the nominating Convention will assemble on the 17th.—The Convention for the Third District assembled in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, but, at the time of this writing, we have not heard the result of its action. The following are our candidates:

1st District.—Hon. David A. Barnes.
4th " " —Hon. Sion H. Rogers.
5th " —Col. Livingston Brown.
6th " —F. E. Shober, Esq.
7th " —Plato Durham, Esq.

P. S.—Since the foregoing was in type, we learn that A. A. McKoy, Esq., of Sampson, has been nominated for Congress in the Second District, and Jas. C. Dobbin, Esq., for Elector. Five thousand persons were present at the great Convention in Fayetteville. Account on Monday.

WADE HAMPTON AND JOHN POOL.

Gen. Wade Hampton, by invitation of the Western Democrats and Conservatives, has consented to make a few speeches in that section of the State. Gen. Hampton, never a secessionist, fought with a heroism and gallantry, during the war, that made him a record inferior to that of none of the chieftains of that great struggle. The war over, he laid down his arms, and has labored, with all the energies of his great soul, for peace, restoration and Union.

John Pool is also canvassing the Western counties. He never went into the field, though he sought the position of Brigadier General in the Confederate army. He was an Elector on the Davis ticket in 1861, canvassed his District advising the people to invest in Confederate securities, and sought protection, at the hands of Gen. Ransom, from "buffaloes." Since the war, he has been seeking to thwart constitutional reconstruction,—his counsels have been for war,—he is the reputed joint-author of the infamous Legislative address, which advises the negroes to burn, steal and slay, and became a speech in Radical caucus, in this city, urging the negro militia. He ought to be made a "Brigadier General" in it, and we hope that Holden will consider his claims.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—MORE FRUITS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ADDRESS.—An attempt was made in Greensboro, on Saturday last, by "Loyal Leaguers," to mob a Democratic negro. He was compelled to fly for his life and forced to take shelter in the house of a private citizen. Five pistol shots were fired at him, and it is remarkable that he escaped with his life. The scoundrels who headed the mob are known, and yet no arrests were made by any of Holden's Squires.

COME AND SEE IT—DEMOCRACY AND RADICALISM CONTRASTED.—C. H. Coffield, of Harnett, sends us two pears: No. 1., he says, is the Democratic pear and represents the Harnett Democracy. No. 2. is the Scallawag pear, and represents Radicalism in Harnett.

A better illustration we have never seen. No. 1. is a large pound pear, luscious, plump, sweet and loyal. No. 2 is a dwarfed, knotty, acrid pear and rotten at the heart.

A MAGAZINE OF LIES.

But few white men in this State, we presume, ever see the Raleigh Standard—especially under its new carpet bag auspices. In order that they may see how it is conducted, we group a few of the bare faced falsehoods contained in a single issue:

1. It is charged that the white men of the State are opposed to Internal Improvements.

2. That the Democrats and Conservatives propose to drive Radicals from office by force of arms.

3. That the white people of the South wish to assume the Confederate war debt.

4. That the Radicals gained 13,000 votes in the late Vermont election.

5. That Judge Merrimon (whom the carpet bag concern designates as "a Mr. Merrimon") stated that as soon as Seymour and Blair are inaugurated the present State officers would have to retire.

6. That the Radical party has reduced the National debt.

7. That the Radical party has reduced the rates of taxation, &c., &c., &c.

The only truth in the whole paper is this;

8. There is only one day to vote in the coming Presidential election.

If there could have been any possible way of falsifying about that, be sure it would have been done.

Here is a specimen of its advice to colored people, with regard to those of their race who, in the exercise of an honest judgment, shall choose to vote the Democratic ticket. There is not a decent or respectable negro in North Carolina who would not hang his head with shame at so infamous and unchristian a suggestion; while just such counsel is causing the negroes, in various parts of the State, to maltreat and murder the worthy men of their own color who dare to do right.

Listen to the carpet-baggers:

"Any colored man who votes for such a set is a monster in folly and wickedness. Let no one touch him. Let no colored man, woman or child speak to him, or give him a crumb of bread or a gourd of water. The curse of God is upon him. All Heaven mourns over him as lost, and all Hell rejoices that there has been found upon the earth one human being who is lower and meaner than the devils themselves."

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVES WILL DO.

They will reduce the expenses of the Government TWO HUNDRED MILLIONS of dollars a year below what they have been each year for the last three years.

They will apply from fifty millions to one hundred millions a year towards the reduction of the National debt.

This policy will reduce the debt; it will reduce taxes; it will reduce the price of sugar, flour, molasses, tea, salt, clothing, boots and shoes.

Our policy will in less than three years make a greenback as good as gold!

Our policy will secure equal and just taxation of all property.

Our policy will secure the payment of every bond and every note issued by the Government to the last dollar.

HOW THE MONEY GOES.—Some twelve or eighteen months ago, the Halls of the Senate and House of Commons and the offices in the Capitol, by order of the General Assembly, were very neatly and substantially fitted up with new carpets, painting, &c., under the direction of Gov. Worth. Neatness and durability were consulted, but care was taken to avoid needless expense.

The Standard, at the time, railed out at the useless expenditure. The condition of the Capitol, by the use of a little labor, &c., would answer very well for some time to come. But we learn that Holden is having the rooms refitted, and we understand that very gaudy and costly carpeting is being put down in the Executive chamber and other offices. This is a most needless expense in view of the poverty of the people.

The Senate lately proposed that $5,000 should be expended for furniture, &c., for the Executive Mansion. The amount demanded was $10,000. To this, both Houses finally agreed. We judge that $5,000 would furnish such a building as the Executive Mansion is, very well. $10,000 would furnish well a far more elegant building.

ANOTHER enthusiastic flag-raising took place in Fayetteville on Monday. Two large and handsome Seymour and Blair flags were flung proudly to the breeze.—The assemblage was addressed by Messrs. McKay and Myrover, and by James Hill, an intelligent colored man. The latter spoke at some length, exposing the vile deceptions which had been practised upon his race by infamous carpet-baggers, for the furtherance of their own selfish designs.

A SEYMOUR and Blair pole, ninety feet high, flying the National flag, was raised in Hillsboro, on Saturday last. Eloquent speeches were made by Messrs. C. M. Busbee, of this City, and Jno. W. Graham, of Orange.

A MASS MEETING of the Democrats and Conservatives took place at Ruffin, in Rockingham, on Thursday and Friday. Gov. Vance and other distinguished speakers were present. We have no account from the meeting.

ROSENBURG.—There will be a Democratic Mass Meeting at Rosenburg, in this county, on Saturday, Oct. 3rd. A large attendance is expected from Nash, Wake, Franklin and Johnston. Speeches will be made by Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Seaton Gales, Esq., and other gentlemen.

THE RADICALS had a procession in Newbern, on Monday night, after the arrival of their delegates from the District Convention at Goldsboro. Many of the negroes composing it were armed with muskets and shot-guns. "Let us have peace!"

DEMOCRATS, for the credit of the town, paid the expenses incurred by the bankrupt Radical club of Argos, Indiana, for a band, recently.

Ohio registers fully 40,000 "White Boys in Blue."

For the Sentinel.

HON. RICHMOND M. PEARSON.

Whenever a judicial gladiator is found within the political "ring," it may be safely concluded that he both desires and invites a critical discussion of his pugilistic strokes and blows. One from Richmond Hill now occupies this attitude, who, having doffed the ermine conferred by a "unanimous people," has suddenly rushed into the foul arena, and is heard loudly reiterating in truly dramatic style, "War! War! My beloved countrymen! God Almighty! forbid a war of races!"

This novel exhibition, we are assured, is solely made by way of charity, the performer being only prompted by an overflowing love for his stolid fellow Conservatives. Yet whilst he avers that Peace is the end and aim of all his theatrics, from his words one might suppose that his voice is still for war.

But, seriously considered, this voluntary effusion of Judge Pearson's deserves the contempt and execration of every lover of peace and order, and all who desire to see an end to confusion and strife. Its character is most seditious and incendiary, for, though speciously framed as a document of Peace, its clearest tendency is, to fan the flames of discord, embolden an ignorant race, and incite a civil war. If such be not the intended purpose, it is nevertheless the natural and necessary effect, and, therefore, deserves unrestricted censure.

Many unprincipled adventurers from the Northern States, hugged to the embraces of our own domestic blacklegs, to swell their numbers, have, in many places, been elevated to fat influential positions. These boldly invoke the negroes to arm and be ever ready to defend themselves, as the Conservatives intend, they say, to reduce them again to a state of bondage, if Seymour is elected. Such harangues and assurances are subversive of all law and order, and deserve to be visited with the pains and penalties of a Radical statute prescribed for those who may intimidate voters by threats and menaces.

It was certainly to have been hoped that such inflammatory speeches would have been exclusively confined to these intruding sharpers, whose chief occupation is to pluck the green feathers from their deluded gulls. But, to the great discredit of the State, it must be confessed that her Chief Justice has stooped so low as to publish and reiterate to the negroes, over his own name, in their avowed organ, and in his most solemn and impressive way, the same infamous and criminal doctrine.

He pretends that he is one of the Conservative party; and, therefore, it may be assumed that he is well acquainted with all its plans and purposes; and, consequently, whatever he may say, from his high position, must possess oracular power. While, in fact, through the Standard, he covertly speaks to the freedmen, he thus, in effect, openly addresses himself to his Conservative associates: "You and I know, my friends, that it is your design, if Seymour be elected, to "nullify" all the Reconstruction acts, Constitutions and laws, declare them null and void, subvert the present order of things, deprive the negroes of their privileges, and reduce them again to bondage. But, my friends, beware! Nestor speaks, bear him and hearken to what he says, that such a purpose cannot be accomplished. It must lead to war. The freedmen now are in possession of civil rights, and to deprive them of them is nullification, and must lead to war. History furnishes no instances of 4,000,000 of people, backed as they are in our State by a clear majority of 20,000 votes, being deprived of political rights, which they have enjoyed for years. It cannot be done without a civil war.—It is against the order of nature."

This is the pith and marrow of the Judge's homily, addressed, within the closets of the Standard, to his Conservative congregation, not there assembled; and so fearful is he that a single allusion will not reach his auditors and awaken them to proper sense of their danger, that he thrice repeats and roars into their ears the existence of this terrible majority of 20,000 votes, and, on the last occasion, couples it with the vivid ideas of actual war, and solid columns standing firm, in invincible martial array. For such information as this, no intelligent man needs the services of a Nestor.

How gratuitous and unfounded are all the Judge's assumptions and assertions, every decent Conservative and Radical but too well knows.

1. There is no such purpose of the Conservatives to rob the negroes of their rights and freedom.

2. History does not justify the Judge in his appeals for its support. From Nebuchadnezzar to Abram Lincoln, some instance might be cited against him. This, however, is only one of the petty resources of, and common with, the political rhetoricians of this day, who are forced to trust more to fancy than to fact, to embellish and sophisticate their untenable propositions.

3. The Judge is well aware, or ought to be, that there is really no such Radical majority as 20,000 or any other number in the State of North Carolina. He knows, or ought to, that more than that number of decent people were disfranchised and kept from the polls, by the logic of Radical bayonets and the threats of confiscation, whilst negro boys of tender years, in numbers, voted, and many of their parents not yet their right of suffrage largely, depositing many ballots into the same box, under different names selected from the registry. He ought further to know that the majority actually reported was not derived from the number of ballots cast, but from the fictitious and Radical manner in which the count was made.

4 He asserts that the war clouds are as dark and threatening now, as they were in the winter of 1860 '61, thereby insinuating that it is only in the Conservative part of the political sky, that they are visible.—How shameful is such a suggestion! How false the finger board that points in that direction! The writer was present in Raleigh, during the winter of 1860 '61, and for weeks listened to the strains of vehement eloquence, and beheld the tears of Senators and Commoners, that were combined to soften the obdurate hearts of the then Conservative members, and induce them to vote liberal supplies for the purchase of arms and powder. The Judge was also there, but he does not tell who were the men, then so anxious for the fray, who then so eagerly sought for arms and ammunition only to preserve the peace and prosperity of the State. He withholds the fact, that those parties were the political friends and allies of one William W. Holden, who, for years previous, with his pestilential breath, had been blowing together those angry "war clouds," and the same William W. Holden, who now, at the head of another party, and with other deluded and corrupt followers, is again blowing up war clouds, and again demanding arms and soldiers only to preserve the peace and order of the State!—War, war, my friends, the war clouds are now dark and angry! And who talks or thinks of war, but those who, when the war shall really come, will hurriedly desert the victimised negro and leave him to his fate, whilst they, in snug bomb-proofs, or in foreign parts, will hope to escape its dangers. Twenty thousand of such men, yea more, will show their discretion; and this boasted majority of ballots will be found sadly wanting in the day of ballots. These are the kind of men, who are now talking and preparing for war, and these are the only parties, to whom the Judge should address his very pathetic and affectionate letters.

But there is another side to this remarkable epistle, that must not be overlooked: The Judge labors under the belief, that his unexpected and unsightly appearance upon the political boards is only prompted by motives of public good; that love for his countrymen has alone forced him to depart from the time hallowed observances of an honored Judiciary. It may be so, but, if so, it is certainly very queer. The Chief Justice has never been suspected of any especial love or tenderness for any of his fellow beings. But, now, when low in the vale of life, when it is said, by the physiologist and moral philosopher, that the blood flows cold and languidly, and the ardent fires of youth cease to glow, the Judge is suddenly seized with a furor of affection for his countrymen. In his younger days, no such vehemence manifested itself, not even when he beheld his infatuated friends, under the lead, as now, of violent politicians, rushing headlong in a continued series from bad to worse. His temperament then was not sufficiently fervid to force him to their rescue; but now, later in life, the philanthropic fire rages to such extent, that it must be cooled by an extraordinary outlet. This may be so, though it would seem to be "against the order of nature." It is not impossible, however, that the Judge, such a stranger to and so unfamiliar with the symptoms of love, may have mistaken some other sensations for the blind and tender passion; and as his letter is self adulatory, to a high degree, an analysis of it may perhaps suggest some other as the real motive of his mysterious conduct.

He, undoubtedly, thinks that, if Seymour be elected, nullification must ensue, and all the existing radical structures, as being null and void, will be subverted; and as he holds his commission under the last revolution, he feels, no doubt, that his judicial seat is rather tottering and insecure. In such a case, like to the unjust steward, he may deem it wise, whilst the opportunity is allowed him, to make friends where they will be serviceable, when he shall be cast out from his present position.

In the letter, again, we find other self-applauding matters lugged in, though rather ungracefully and unfittingly, in which the Judge, very complacently, refers to certain late discoveries in the legal science, which he, himself, has made. These, hidden from the deep penetration of all his learned predecessors and cotemporaries, from the days of Magna Charta to his own, he has skilfully evolved, and now reveals to an astonished world the grand principle, that all the powers of government are susceptible of a three fold classification: First, Such as are truly constitutional and must be supported. Second, Such as are unconstitutional and must be disregarded "as null and void;" and third, the extra-constitutional, which, as being the best and most obligatory of the three, must be sustained by all Judges, and humbly respected by the people. Under this extra-constitutional principle, he shows not only his willingness, but his capacity, to sustain all the revolutionary measures of the most unprincipled and licentious and Radical Congress; their rightful power to overturn State governments and substitute others of their own; to invoke Conventions to make Constitutions and then, if rejected by the people, to accept them in whole or in part, as a majority of Congress may feel disposed; to establish Bureaus of any kind; to erect military despotisms in the very places where the Constitution expressly commands republican forms of government shall be guaranteed and maintained; to introduce martial law in times of peace and annul the freeman's precious right of habeas corpus; to erect military tribunals and invest them with power to try and condemn the citizen to death, or perpetual imprisonment in bastiles and forts, for crimes and offences that have never received even the illusory promulgation of a Roman Emperor; to disfranchise and punish citizens, the innocent and guilty alike, by whole States, without a trial, or a verdict of their peers, though the crime itself and the mode of its ascertainment are well defined in the Constitution; and so on ad libitum to meet an emergency. This extra principle, once drawn forth by necessity, has no limits, and its bounds are co-extensive with eternal space. Written Constitutions, when necessity or emergency requires, may be wholly disregarded, and the extra Constitution be made to take its place.

This is a most felicitous discovery and most remarkably adapted to this Radical era. The Binghams and Sumners, Butlers and Stantons, have heretofore weakly labored under the prevailing delusion, that their acts were wholly untenable and indefensible; and so much so, that they have studiously screened them from Judicial review. Chase and his compeers, too, of the highest Court of the land seem in like manner impressed, as it is rumored that the opinion in the McArdle case is written, but repressed by Congressional interdiction. In fact the great apostle, Thad. Stevens, openly declared, that none but fools would deny, that they were legislating entirely outside of the Constitution, meaning thereby that they had no authority whatever for their ruthless acts. But now, in the midst of such impenetrable gloom, a new light comes, and this political chaos at once arranges itself into an orderly and well digested system. Do the necessities of the government, by which is meant the ruling faction, require further usurpations, to protect that government's life or well being, then they are within the undefinable limits of this Extra Constitution; even to the extent of making a dictator, a Czar or Emperor. In such an hour of party distress, we cannot withhold the vision that forces itself upon our view: How snugly our Chief Justice would fit the seat upon the Supreme Court Bench at Washington, now vacant and intending to be so kept, until Gen. Grant shall have the privilege of nominating a suitable occupant! What an invaluable accession would he, in that position, be, to the trembling Radicals; and the more especially when he shows them, by actually existing cases referred to, how winning are his ways with his associate Judges, as he has successfully deluded them into a "unanimous opinion" upon this newly discovered, extra-Constitutional principle. It would seem, that these novel views had been conceived and framed to meet the "emergency," and the Judge's letter published only to give him notoriety; and from his suddenly leaping into the ring, it is evident that he intends to be viewed as the great champion of the Radicals, to out-Holden Holden, and keep in his rear those ambitious aspirants, Rodman, Tourgee and Reade; so that if Grant shall receive the vote of the State and be elected, the General will say to the Judge, well done thou good and faithful servant, enter thou, &c. Being once there, his winning ways will come in lively play, the virtues of the Extra be learnedly expounded, and then possibly the Chief will take the Associate's vacant seat.

An analysis of the letter thus suggests that it is possible, and even probable, that some such vision must have flitted before the Judge's eyes and produced a flutter in his "cardiac regions," which he, from his want of familiarity in such matters, mistook for and erroneously ascribed to love, the love of his fellow countrymen. It is certainly a very extra ordinary case, and should be reported in the Medical Journals.

In this legal discovery, however, our Radical chanticleer, like the cock in Æsop's fables, has only scratched from the dunghill a jewel which possesses no real value, as it is only fit for show, and only a slight inspection of it is requisite to test its intrinsic worth. When the Deity organized the vegetable and animal races, he imparted to each, such limbs, members, parts and powers as he deemed sufficient for their well being, compatibly with the end they were severally to perform in the economy of the universe. Nature is but a grand confederacy consisting of many parts, so adjusted and related as to promote universal good. Man, the apex of the cone of life, is but a creature, and standing endowed by his Creator, with the power of locomotion, five senses, and certain moral and intellectual gifts. These, if properly used and not neglected, nor perverted, are all sufficient for his welfare and happiness, but, under no condition or emergency, can he transcend his constitutional limits, not even if necessary to preserve his life. Being organized for the land, if he will venture upon the sea and incur shipwreck, even then in such an emergency he may not walk upon the water, however desirable such an extra-constitutional faculty would be; if imprudently he may wake hungry lions in their lair, to save himself from swift destruction, he cannot take to himself wings and fly away from his carnivorous foe. The Maker's law to him is, live or die, with the gifts imparted. Imitating Deity, man undertakes to make creatures of his own, which he styles "bodies politic," and upon them he bestows such endowments as are adapted to their ends. Such a creature is the Federal government, acknowledging the States or people as its creator. To it, at the outset, was imparted every faculty and power, which the most deliberate judgment and the most enlightened wisdom, on the part of its illustrious authors, could conceive essential to its welfare, its preservation and perpetuity. All others whatever were most jealously and cautiously withheld, and the law to it was, to live with them or die. After wofully and wilfully abusing and perverting the gifts conferred, the creature craves, and Judge Pearson holds that it may, by extra-constitutional right, legally exercise any, some or all, of the very powers that were at first jealously denied, and were also in express terms reserved to the States or people. This body politic has this advantage over the natural man: The latter may not, under any circumstances whatever, apply to his Creator and obtain an enlargement of his powers, even to meet overwhelming "emergencies or necessities." The former may so apply and obtain a further endowment, if its Creator be satisfied of its propriety. That such powers should not be usurped without permission or authority, is clear; for the Creator might, in its wisdom, conceive a further grant wholly unnecessary, or dangerous to and incompatible with its own powers reserved. And, further, the Creator might discern, and apprehend, that the powers asked for to secure its creature's life, if granted, would prove most certainly destructive of its own, and, therefore, would refuse, and adhere to its first determination, that, if with the facilities already bestowed, the creature could not live, then it would be better for it to die, and to be dissolved into its original elements. No says the Chief Justice, in Radical tones, it need not invoke or even consult its masters, but if necessary may violate its fixed organization, usurp any faculties not granted to it, even fly or walk upon the water; it may lawfully transgress the limits plainly circumscribed about it, and, if necessary to preserve its own existence, may swallow up its maker, the people and the States. Such an absurdity is really too gross and palpable, for the adoption of a tyro, and hence it is that the great extra constitutional has never been discovered and announced before this day. The wise and learned framers of the Constitution were fully competent to their undertaking, and are not chargeable with oversights and omissions. They had studied the devious ways of man, the just and exact balances that should exist in stable governments, and cautiously pre-examined and anticipated all the difficulties and dangers that might beset the path of the American Union. They made ample provisions for time of peace, and others equally ample for the times of war. They anticipated intestine troubles, and gave the power to quell insurrections. And they did foresee that civil war might come, and accordingly defined the limits of treason and prescribed the punishment for rebels and traitors. Nothing has yet occurred to the government, which they did not contemplate as possible, and the very "emergencies and necessities" of this Radical day would have been wholly averted by the timely and wholesome exercise of its truly constitutional faculties. Our wise and prudent forefathers, after calmly and deliberately surveying the whole field of view, failed to furnish us with an extra Constitution for emergencies of any grade or kind.—And why? Their shrewd intelligence too clearly discerned the monstrous dangers of this modern Radical doctrine. They viewed it as a two-edged sword that would cut both ways, behind as well as before; That if it were legitimate for the general government or the creature, in an emergency incited by its own wantonness or neglect, for its own safety, to totally disregard and annul the written obligations of the Constitution, equally legitimate would it necessarily be, for the several States to do the same, whenever their welfare and existence might become imperilled. Thus it is clearly seen, that this grand discovery of the Judge's was wisely rejected, for truly it legalizes and justifies the most detestable "nullification"—and makes wicked "secession" not only an honorable but a most sacred duty.

But, again, the Judge conceives that, situated as he is, it would be "criminal" in him, were he to maintain silence at this particular juncture. The reason certainly is very far from clear, but Radical logic is always murky. It is only a short time since, that a Radical Congress deemed it a "high crime," worthy of impeachment, for one Judge Fields of the Washington Bench to hint, even in whispers to a friend, his opinion on subjects kindred to the present; but now it is held, by the Chief Justice himself, that it would be a crime in the Chief Justice, if he did not, from the very house-tops, yell forth his political decisions; and that too upon questions that he must judicially review, at an early day. Strange logic this—that high and punishable crimes in Washington are, in North Carolina, sublime and ornate virtues. It looks as if the Judge had made a new discovery again in law and morals. We, plain and unsophisticated natives, always thought it rather criminal in Judges to wallow in political mire, and would as soon think of enticing a Judge to the commission of any other crime as this; and if he finds himself floundering in the "vortex," he certainly may not charge any one with having pushed or "drawn" him in. He, like the little boy that whistled in school, must say "it whistled itself, sir."

But whilst forced thus to detract from his infallibility as a Judge, we are also bound to accord to him the greatest proficiency in political strategy. The Radical party are not only unwilling, but unable, to achieve party success by intellectual conflicts, and only hope and aim to accomplish their ends by artifice or deceit. Their chief reliance has been and still is, by exciting fears and alarms, to drive the ignorant negroes into their leagues, and frighten the timid whites away from the polls. First, it was urged that absolute submission was necessary to be restored to the Union, and be freed from military tyranny. That worked well. Next again, confiscation was used as the scare-crow to secure the victory; and to give color to this imposture, Thad. Stevens introduced his memorable resolution into the House and himself moved the postponement of its consideration until December. That worked remarkably well, secured another victory with 20,000 majority. Now again the eve of another election approaches, and another hob-goblin is needed. The wit of the party is exercised for the conjuration of one that will surely do the work. The crisis is an important one, involving perhaps another turn of the political wheel, which may bring down the Governor, Judges, and all minor officials to their former levels. No common thunder will answer for this occasion; it must be grand, overwhelming and irresistible. The negroes must not break their ranks. The simple whites must not reach the polls, they must all be frightened worse than ever before. Who is there able to devise the plan? The Stentor to furnish the deafening clangor? The Vulcan to fabricate the heavy artillery? At this critical juncture, into the ring down drops the Judge from the political sky, with artistic thunderbolts, most aptly and cunningly forged for the grand affray.—"War! War!! WAR!!! God! forbid a war of races! The war cloud is darkly looming around the horizon! The hills teem with war Conservatives, the plains abound with war Democrats; and hydra headed nullifiers are numerous and ubiquitous. History affirms that four millions of negroes can not be deprived of their rights, especially when backed by twenty thousand—TWENTY THOUSAND—TWENTY THOUSAND voters, all standing united, and standing firm in solid martial columns." Herein the Judge sounds the key note, to guide the Radical choir in their campaign songs, during the present canvass, and already do they sing it. With such thunder as this, all, both white and black, might with propriety acknowledge themselves terribly frightened, and probably would do so, had they not, by degrees, become accustomed to such mock artillery.

But it is bold and daring strategy surely; such as some would call downright effrontery, if not by a name somewhat worse.—There are no signs of war, no war cloud, save that presented by Holden's militia or police; there is not a single War Democrat, from Maine to Mexico, not a single War Conservative between the Atlantic and the Pacific; there are no four millions of negroes to be or about to be robbed of their freedom or their rights; no such majority of 20,000 voters to stand in solid column; no such history as the Judge refers to, and as to the hydra headed nullifiers, there are only those, who have so freely nullified the Constitution of the United States and all its clauses and provisions; who have nullified all our Southern States, and converted them into Military Satrapies under the extra-Constitutional doctrine; who have nullified our whole system of jurisprudence, and mingled law and equity into an unfathomable and heterogeneous mass; who have nullified all our Courts, and turned Judges, Justices and all minor officials out and in as they pleased—who have nullified our venerable University, and closed many humbler schools—who have deliberately nullified individual rights and privileges, disfranchised our best citizens, and elevated the negroes to their places; those who have and still persistently nullify any and every thing, great and small, that may offer the least obstruction to their successful absorption of the people's money. These and these only are the hydra headed nullifiers, now any where known or discernible. Out of such material has the Judge forged his bolts of Radical thunders, and none can say that he is not an adept in this branch of political manufacture.

The Judge is so eager for the election of Grant that his boldness stops not here; for he fains to believe, that, by his shrewdness, there is yet another set of gulls, who may be entrapped into his well planned snares; at any rate he makes the trial. He strongly insinuates and indirectly says, that if the Conservatives will only vote for Grant and help to elect him, their's will be the victory, and that more perfectly than if they succeeded with Seymour. Then, says he, the storm will be over and "the Conservatives will take the guidance of affairs and all will be well." Here is another discovery of the Judge's, a new problem furnished by political science. Abandon your principles, desert your cause and friends, join the enemy, and when they obtain the victory, then the fruits will be your own, and all will be well. Such a doctrine need only be stated to the pure and honorable, to provoke their contempt, disgust and detestation. It is evident that the Judge means and feels that all will be well with the office holders, who now feel assured that another term will wrest them from the Public Treasury, and consign them to their appropriate places. To Grant's bosom, alone, would he go, to enjoy the yearnings of his heart. Let all be made aware of his deep signs, of his willingness that all may sink, if he can only swim. Having no ill will against the Judge, we assure the reader that it is with regret and humiliation that we have felt constrained to thus review his letter, and, having an interest in our mother State, and a strong sympathy for her people, we, like the Judge, can say, with truth, that it would be criminal to maintain silence upon such an occasion.

HOW THE NEGROES WERE EXPELLED FROM THE GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette says:

"The action of the Georgia House of Delegates in excluding negroes from that body, on the ground of ineligibility, has produced no surprise here, as it was known here in advance that the movement would be made under the dictation of the Radical committee of Congressmen, who considered that action would be a trump card in the Northern canvass, as showing the Radical party was not favorable to negro equality. It required a great deal of backing and filling before the carpet baggers of Georgia could be induced to move in the matter, as they professed to see in it nothing but their own political overthrow. In resisting the proposition they urged that the negroes would easily understand that they were being used merely as tools and would turn from them in disgust and join the Democracy. This loss, however, was regarded insignificant when compared with the great advantage arising to the Radical party in the North to be able to demonstrate to the masses that the Democratic speakers lied when they charged their opponents with favoring negro equality. This is the key to the action of the Georgia Legislature, and the Radical wire workers are chuckling over it as one of the smartest tricks of the canvass. How will their colored allies relish it?"

NEW COTTON.—The first bale of new cotton from the "Old North State" reached this market on Friday last, consigned to J. G. McPheeters & Co., from the plantation of Dr. W. R. Miller, near Raleigh, and was sold by Powell & Harrison, cotton brokers, for 30 cents.

Dr. Miller writes his correspondents that the freedmen have worked well this season, and he has the prospect now of shipping some 300 bales to this market.—Baltimore Gazette, 8th.

THE RESULT IN MAINE AND VERMONT AS A CRITERION FOR OHIO AND OTHER STATES.

The Radical journals take it for granted that if the election in Maine, like that in Vermont, shows a Radical gain, it will be an index of the great elections which are to transpire in October in Ohio and Pennsylvania. With all due deference we shall proceed to show that such a result will be no index at all. It was not an index even last year as to the character of following elections. It is true, there was a heavy falling off in the Republican majorities in those States, but Vermont polled but little more than half her vote, only 43,000, when it should have been 65,000 or 70,000 votes; and Maine only cast 104,000, while she polled years ago 122,000 votes.

The falling off in the Republican majorities was owing not to the Democracy polling a larger vote than usual, but simply to the failure of thousands of Republicans to vote. Their majorities were so overwhelming in both States that they ran not the least risk of losing the election by staying at home.

Now did we have any such election in Ohio? The Democrats made a gain of forty thousand votes from the previous year, and nearly carried the State, but how did they do it? Was it because the Republicans of Ohio failed to vote, like their brethren of Vermont and Maine? Far from it. The Ohio vote was fourteen thousand greater than had ever been thrown. The circumstance never occurred before, but it was greater than ever cast, even at a Presidential election. The Republican vote was brought out to the last man. Their reserves were all in—nobody was left behind. The graveyards were swept. Now, does it follow or stand to reason because the Radicals may be enabled in Maine and Vermont to bring out a large class of their voters who stayed at home last year, that they can do it in Ohio where there are no stay-at-homes to bring out, or in New York, where the Democratic vote last year was four thousand more than any Republican ever received in that State?

It is probable that the New England elections may be a criterion of the New England element wherever that element predominates, and that we may, therefore, look for a slight increase in the Republican majority in the Ohio Western Reserve, whose people are descendants of New England pioneers. But on the other side, the result in Kentucky, with its increased Democratic gain, is an equal good criterion of how the descendants of Old Virginia and Kentucky, who are much more numerous in Ohio than the New England descendants, will vote. The Pennsylvania emigration, too, is immense in this State, and their descendants yet remain to be heard from in the old Keystone State.

We remember well that, in 1856, after Maine took a dip from being Democratic the year before, and elected a Republican Governor by 18,000 votes, that the Republicans then claimed it as the index of the October elections. But it was not. The gallant Willard beat Oliver P. Morton in Indiana by 8,000 votes, and the Democrats elected their State ticket in Pennsylvania. Not only this, they also elected their President, James Buchanan, in November. On the whole, therefore, we advise our Republican friends not to jump at too rash a conclusion, even if they do make a gain in Maine on Monday next.

If the Republicans do lose in Maine, and on a full vote don't hold their own on the light vote of last year, it will then possess a significance which, as we have showed from obvious reasons, it will not possess if they make a gain. This is also one of the cases in which the circumstances not being equal, the rule will not apply equally well both ways.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—THE TENNESSEE DELEGATION.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11, M.

The Tennessee delegation have had an interview with the President, but the details are suppressed. They are to have another interview, when the Committee will, themselves, telegraph the result to the Tennessee Legislature.

The delegation expressed themselves satisfied with the progress of events. They, in their address, urge immediate reinforcement of Federal troops in Tennessee to act with the civil authorities in the preservation of order, enforcement of the laws and the prosecution of criminals.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11, P. M.

JAMES MATT, nominated by Rollins and strongly recommended by leading men of both parties, is appointed by McCulloch Supervisor for Missouri.

Commissioner Mix has advices that the Indian troubles at Fort Zara, Arkansas, originated with two drunken Indians and a lying Quartermaster. All quiet now.

Acting Attorney General Ashton decides that the Quartermaster General, under the existing laws, has no authority to allow compensation for premises used for army purposes, South, during the war. The test case was that of Elliott of Tennessee, whose premises were used for a hospital. Under this ruling, similar claims, aggregating thirty millions, on file in the War Department, are ignored.

The report of the Tennessee Legislature delegation is published. The burden of it is an appeal for aid against the Ku Klux Klan, whose exploits are narrated at great length. The delegation think that the State Government could protect itself, but the Federal soldiers, having no local prejudices, would better maintain peace.

FROM GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Sept 11, P. M.

The Radical nominating Convention held a Mass-Meeting last night. The white speakers warned the negroes that, if Seymour and Blair were elected, they would all be put back into slavery again. (The old lie!) After the meeting, the negroes had a torch-light procession in which about three hundred participated.

FROM ATLANTA—THE LEGISLATURE.

ATLANTA, Sept. 11, P. M.

The Senate resolution gives the negroes one hour each to make their defence on the question of ineligibility—members participating thirty minutes.

The day was consumed in the discussion.

The impression is that the negroes will be declared ineligible by a small majority. (The Senate of Georgia is Radical by a decided majority.—SENTINEL.)

Tribute of Respect.

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 9, 1868.

The Commissioners for the village of Chapel Hill met this day for the purpose of passing suitable resolutions in connection with the death of the late Hon. D. L. SWAIN.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we feel deeply the loss which the whole State has suffered in all its interests, and especially those of public instruction, by the death of Gov. Swain.

That we can estimate his worth in the more private relations of life, and have a melancholy pleasure in bearing witness to his great excellence in them; that we shall not soon forget his ready sympathy with his neighbors his many acts of kindness to those who were in doubt or trouble; his unequalled sagacity as a counsellor; the affection and tolerance that marked his intercourse with men among us; his courteous manners, and the thorough piety of his life; and we feel that our community has also sustained a loss that cannot be easily repaired.

That we desire to express to his family our very sincere sympathy with them in their grievous affliction, and commit them to Him who only can relieve their sorrows.

Resolved, That the Clerk be instructed to spread these resolutions upon the Town Record, and that he transmit a copy of the same to the family of our deceased friend, and also furnish one for publication.

UNIVERSAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE LOSSES PAID IN

FOR THIRTY DAYS.

FEMALE RISKS. No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate
25	$21 10	$27 48	45	$63 48	$78 18
30	25 53	33 10	50	74 57	104 27

40	40 07	67 41	60	163 24	201 07

Example.—A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays 43.10 per annum on the 10 pay' ment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215.50, his policy will be good for $1,215.50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

$7,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.
Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy, the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur UNLESS ON IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:

The PREPARATORY, September 30th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL, October 19th.

This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the "assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in Science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological school has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical six. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges. Number of students the past year, 434. VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For 25 Years I was sorely afflicted with "the Piles." After trying every remedy I could hear of, and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure, and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage. (fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, as far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely merged, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By-Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the —— Club of ——— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democratic, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt, may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the state.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board; when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!
